MEDIA RELEASE

The Trinidad and Tobago Racing Authority hereby advises of a decision taken by the Board at a Special Meeting of the Authority held on February 19th, 2021:

Appeal Against the Decision of Stewards to Fine Trainer Glen Mohammed $500 for failure to present horse, FEEL THE HEAT, for pre-race day inspection on Friday February 5th 2021, of the 2021 racing season, for Race Day 3, held on Saturday February 6th, 2021

The Board noted Trainer Mohammed's submitted written explanation regarding his failure to present his horse, FEEL THE HEAT for pre-race day inspection on Friday February 5th 2021.

Having given due consideration to his written explanations, and the evidence offered by Mr. Errol Mc David - Steward of the Arima Race Club and the Industry Veterinarian, Dr. Sasha Neckchuddy, the Board was of the view that there was no justification to alter the decision of the Stewards to fine him the sum of Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) for failure to present his horse, FEEL THE HEAT for pre-race day inspection.

Accordingly, his appeal was disallowed and his deposit of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) paid upon lodging the appeal has been forfeited.

The Board reiterated that all Trainers need to be more professional and responsible in carrying out their duties and that the rules and conditions apply to all Trainers. Anyone acting in contravention of said rules or conditions will be liable to the requisite penalty.

Please be guided accordingly.
